80 semitrailers for CTJ Janssen

Werlte, January 2017 - 80 new Krone semitrailers from the Profi Liner model series are now being deployed at CTJ Janssen GmbH. The trailers were officially handed over to Ernst-August Bührke (head of the technical department) at the Werlte Krone location by Krone's Managing Director Gero Schulze Isfort, Sales Manager Dr. Frank Albers and Regional Sales Manager Claus-Peter Hütten. "As a professional transport and logistics company, we provide transport for all sorts of goods. This is why we decided to purchase 80 new Profi Liners, this high-quality all-round vehicle offers flexible use", said Ernst-August Bührke. "After all, our customers demand professional services in the transport and logistic sector; this is why we attach great importance to a modern and well-kept fleet and replace our semitrailers every six years at the most", explained Bührke. On behalf of the entire Krone team, Claus-Peter Hütten thanked CTJ for their trust in Krone. "We have been maintaining a collaborative relationship with CTJ for five years now. CTJ regularly invests in new transport technologies and, accordingly, they set the bar very high. This is our motivation, and we are happy to be able to meet these requirements", said Hütten. About CTJ
