There is always something to transport

Hornbach receives and orders further transport equipment from Krone

Bornheim/Werlte, February 2021 – New year, new transport equipment - according to this motto, Andreas Back, Head of Quality Management/Environment at Hornbach Baumarkt AG, took delivery of the eleventh Krone Profi Liner and the first of eleven new Krone construction material trailers. On the occasion of the handover, Krone Regional Sales Manager Markus Gemmel thanked Hornbach for the trust it has placed in Krone since the 1990s. In the beginning, it was mainly swap body trailers that were used, but today Hornbach relies on its own so-called recyclables liner logistics, which currently comprises eleven semi-trailers. One semi-trailer is used as a promotional vehicle with a superstructure of an oversized nail.

"Not only since Corona have many people invested in their private homes and realised smaller or larger modernisation projects in their house and garden. With our own fleet, we offer customers, who include professional building tradesmen as well as hobby craftsmen, delivery of the necessary materials to the building site, e.g. with building material trailers in central axle design. This delivery service is often and gladly used. Of course, we also focus on sustainability in the area of logistics and thus on products with high quality, because that means longevity and low follow-up costs. We have found this quality at Krone for decades," says Andreas Back in the context of the vehicle handover.
